Brief Introduction of our New Board

Pamela Andrews

Pamela graduated from UBC with a BSc. Degree in Occupational Therapy in 2000 and started her career path specializing in accessibility and barrier free designs as Access Consultant, Accreditation Consultant and Guest Lecturer for UBC School of Rehabilitation Sciences, Barrier Free Design Inc. and more. Her expertise brought her to accessible environment assessment, setting the foundation to be Facilities Project Leader for VCHA. In 2007 Pamela was awarded the Canadian Association of Occupational Therapists Award for Innovative Practice. Pamela is community minded, and a strong advocate for disability issues, including a myriad of advisory works on accessible transportation, housing issues, disability issues, etc. Pamela has been holding roles in various volunteer works throughout her life, demonstrating her intense interest in motivation, resiliency and the human spirit.
