Embracing creative thinking outside the box

Now moving towards its 40 years, the Richmond Centre for Disability (RCD) is a resilient organization within an often challenging funding environment. We are participant-focused and committed to empowering our diverse, cross-disability membership. We do this by remaining approachable and responsive to member and stakeholder needs.

Our flexible and resourceful Centre staff work collaboratively with our participants. Thanks to this teamwork, and through our many activities and services, we regularly witness our members' perseverance in self-determination and growth toward independence.
