

Project Outcomes and Impacts

Outcomes	Indicators	Impacts
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PWD receive knowledge, training and tools in the accessible parking enforcement area • Increased access to employment for PWD as well as better outcomes for people needing accessible parking • PWD have a sense of ownership and control of the parking permit program • Better information about the existing inventory of accessible parking spaces including areas of high demand • Better information about potential instances of misuse or abuse of designated accessible parking spaces and/or the misuse or abuse of parking permits • Creation of a “model” that has the potential to be scaled and replicated province-wide 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Number of PWD contracted • Number of maps created showing availability of designated accessible parking spaces • Number of communities covered across the Lower Mainland • Better insight / understanding of potential enforcement issues including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - # of instances of abuse - Type of abuse/violation - Frequency for different types of areas/locations - Peak times & locations - Hot spots - Current fines • Information available for building the business case for creating long-term employment for PWD as well as knowledge and capacity to scale and replicate this initiative in other communities • Number of other potential community partners to participate 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Increased awareness by the driving public around the need to respect and protect designated accessible parking spaces across communities (i.e. designated accessible parking is a necessity, not a convenience) • Greater awareness about the needs of PWD including improved access to employment, and improved access to designated accessible parking for those who need it most • Strengthened enforcement and community partnership, and partnership with local government • Stronger enforcement and compliance including a reduction in the number of instances of potential misuse or abuse