

RCD is here to support you

Find Your Path

(Career / Community participation planning)

- Find Your Path
- Connect to the resources to help you along your way
- Develop your participation and workplace skills
- Learn how to prepare your resumes and cover letters
- Access the full range of RCD services

"Supports for Independent Living"

For more info please call

Louise Gaudry at 604-232-2404
or email: louise@rcdrichmond.org

Richmond Centre for Disability

#842 - 5300, No.3 Rd, Lansdowne Centre, Richmond, BC

V6X 2X9

www.rcdrichmond.org

Richmond Centre for Disability

WORCC (Job Club)

The Work OR Community participation Class

The Work or Community participation Class (WORCC) is part of a complete range of employment and pre-employment services offered through the Richmond Centre for Disability's Supports for Independent Living Project. It is part of our resources for career development(rcd) stream. SIL participants can also chose to access our community participation stream called resources for community participation (rcp).

Resources for Career development

Work

OR

Community participation

Class

Who is eligible to participate in WORCC?

- Anyone with a disability aged 15-30 or, aged 30 and older as space allows
- Anyone with a disability who is interested in exploring their interests and abilities
- Anyone with a disability interested in developing job, volunteer or other community participation

How often does the WORCC class run?

- Classes run 2 times a week.
There are 18 classes a term.
- Terms begin 3 times a year
(January, April and September)
- Each class is 1 and a half hours in length with a short break

What is covered in the WORCC ?

- Career Exploration using the Career Cruising on-line career search program
- Resume and cover letter writing
- Finding references
- Looking for job postings
- Learning to network
- How to dress for success
- Workplace etiquette
- Interview skills ...and more!

“Promoting a new perspective on disability”

