

VANCOUVER ISLAND
UNIVERSITY

Cooperative Entrepreneur Training Program

CETP supports people with diverse abilities to achieve their business dreams through business planning, securing funding, mentorship & building community support.

Do you want to:

- turn your business idea into a reality?
- grow your family business?
- turn your passion into a profitable business?
- develop business skills for self-sufficiency?
- establish and maintain a network of entrepreneurial support?
- learn the start-up process?
- secure start-up funding and other resources to support your business?

If you answered yes to any of these questions, this program is for you!

Cooperative Entrepreneur Training Program (CETP)

Create a business plan, pursue start-up funding and access a support network to grow a thriving business. Put your business into practice with faculty support and community mentorship.

Delivery

Instruction, community interaction and mentorship delivered online.

Duration

30 weeks, September to May
Application deadline is June 20, 2024.

Apply online today

educationplannerbc.ca

Category

Trades & Applied technology Programs

Subject Area

Academic and Career Preparation

Program

Cooperative Entrepreneur Training Certificate Program

Program features

- student accommodations available
- one-on-one support from faculty and staff
- gain confidence, exposure and credibility as a business person
- create a robust business plan to apply for start-up funding
- create an online business presence that includes website, ecommerce store, social media accounts and other online distribution channels
- learn industry best practices through a community mentorship
- develop a long-lasting support network for success

The program is designed for participants who have disabilities and may be suitable for other people who want to become self-employed but require support.

Questions or assistance with applications, please contact Amy Woermke at amy.woermke@viu.ca

VANCOUVER ISLAND
UNIVERSITY